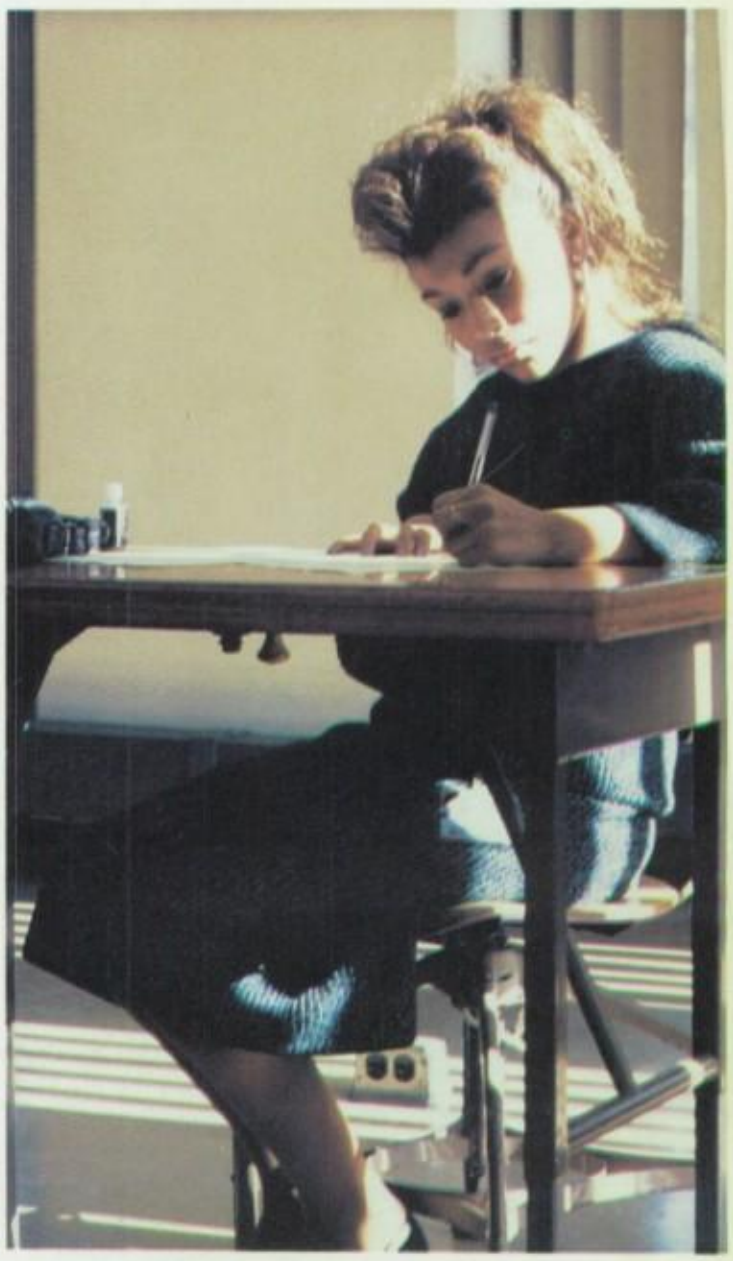
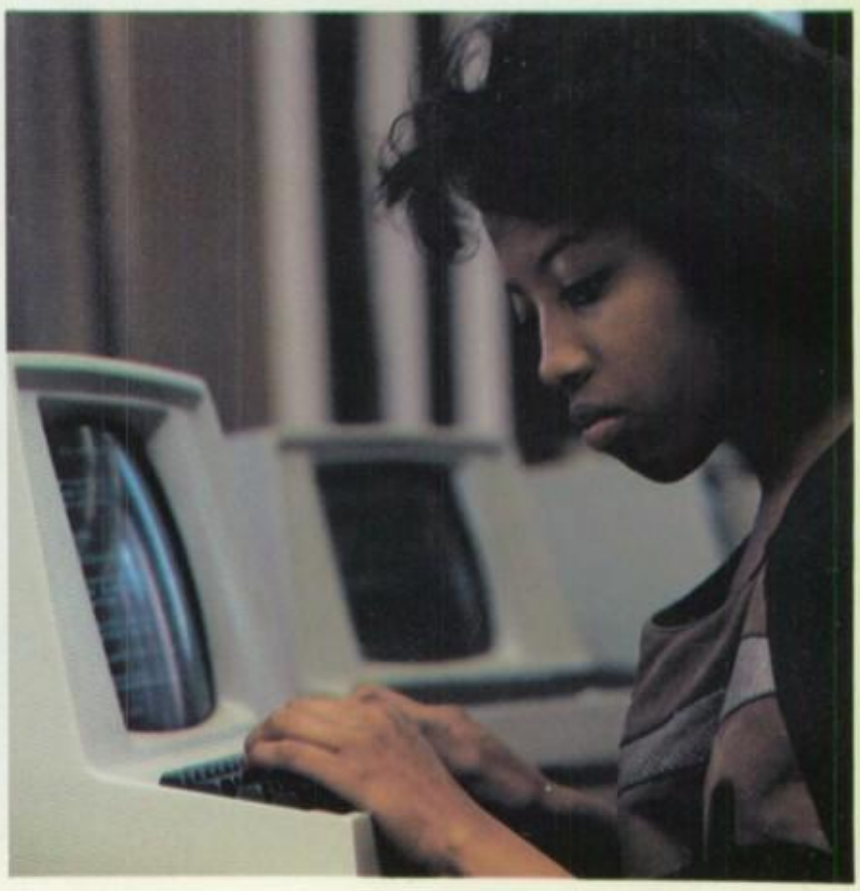
JONES METROPOLITAN HIGH SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND COMMERCE

606 South State Street Chicago,Illinois 60605

If you want it, Jones has it. There are many majors to choose from at Jones. Jones is the school to remember.





SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The senior class will truly miss the young man who has proven to be a superb leader, Rothiel Davis. The class gives a special thanks to their number one sponsor, Ms. Jackson, and all the great class officers:

Elizabeth Juarez, Treasurer
Annette Chestnut, Secretary
Rothiel Davis, President
Fenecia Cooper, Vice President

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Under the great leadership of Miss Reed, class sponsor, the juniors did wonders. Hats off to you juniors and your sponsor.

Alana Matlock, Secretary
Harry Nyholm, President

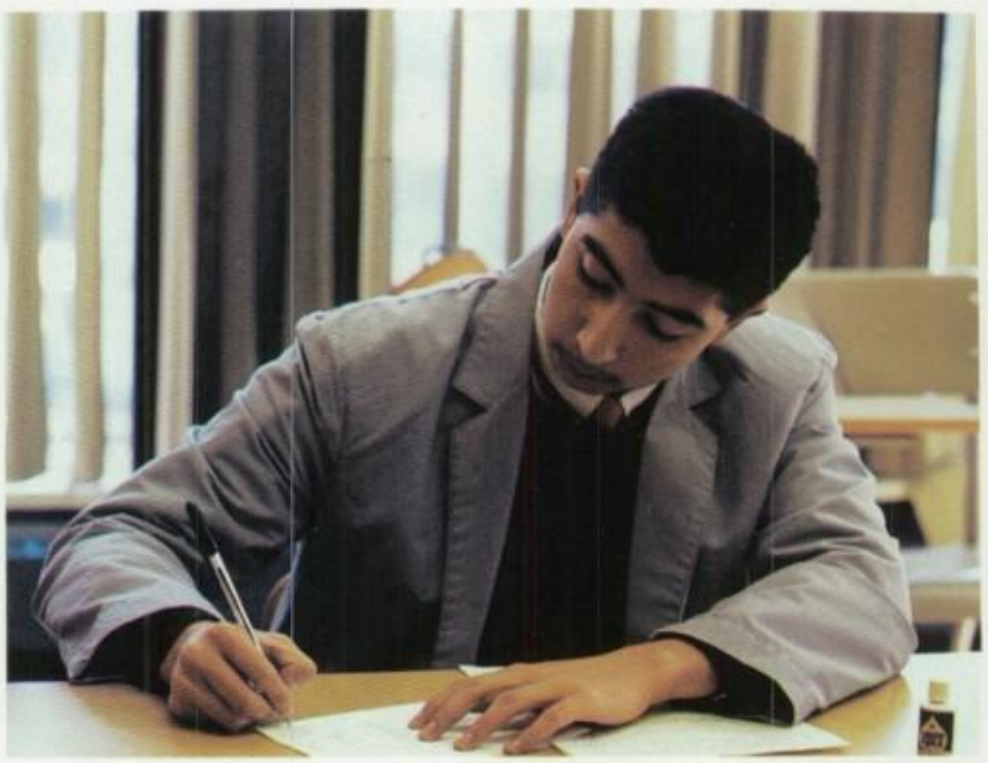
There is help everywhere.



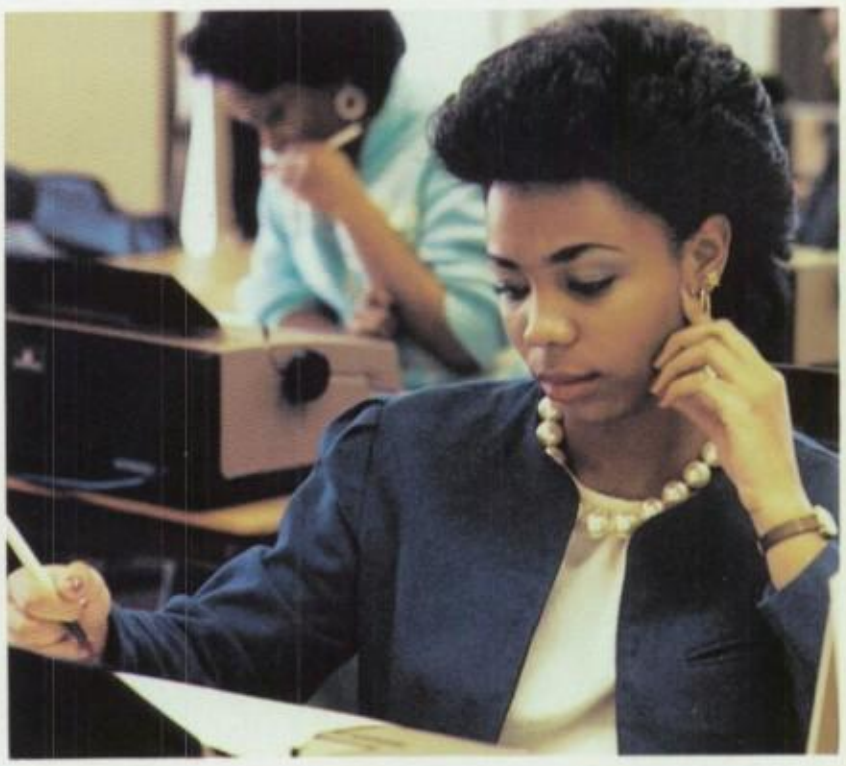
Working hard is a natural thing at Jones

THE MANY FACES OF JONES

Karen gets the job done.

At Jones you must look good.

Being studious is our business.



It must be right.

THE BIG LITTLE-BROTHER SISTER PARTY

Each year the seniors at Jones chose little brothers and sisters to help throughout the year. This year was a grand occasion to be long remembered. The teachers had the students really laughing hard.

Isn't it great to know that someone cares?

Aren't we cute?

Kim Caron and little sister. Below: Venetia Allen and little sister.

THE LIBRARIAN

Mrs. R. Key-Anderson - Librarian

The Library

*L*earningcan be a very slow process.
*I*t can be frustrating, yes, an unfair contest.
*B*ooks are the one source in which to find an answer.
*R*eading to be a football player, to becoming a graceful ballet dance.
A way to acquire knowledge, or to satisfy a need.
*R*eading books is one way for hungry minds to feed.
*Y*ou can visit a haven of books, but remember to bring your stationary.
You will always take notes when you visit your local library.

SPECIAL GUESTS AT JONES

Ms. Valerie Levitan (right), President of the Illinois and Greater Chicago Division of the United Nations Association, presents Annette Chestnut with a $75.00 check for her second place winning essay, "The Role of the United States in the United Nations" as Dr. O'Malley and others look on.

Mr. Tryba and Ms. Merle Tillery speak with Dr. Martha Mogol, Director of Bureau of Secondary Education, Manila. D. Mogol, who was visiting the United States from the Philippines, was brought to Jones by Ms. Maryetta Davis, Bureau of Business Education.

BLACK HISTORY ASSEMBLY

The assembly which was held on Thursday March 3, 1988 was just a marvelous assembly. Thanks to Mrs. Billingsley and all of those who helped to make the assembly a successful one. There were many wonderful things done and said. The program was enlightening. The guest speaker was a very fine man by the name of Reverend B. Herbert Martin, Sr., Pastor of Progressive Community Church and Chairman of the Chicago Housing Authority. The Emcees were Rothiel Davis and Vernita Allen. The dancers opened the programs with a beautiful interpretation of the spiritual "Soon and Very Soon." The dancers were Wanda Billups, Bernice Billips, Sonja Bogan, Chandra Coleman, Kimberly Gentle, Doris Manning, Trina Nelson and Pricilla Willingham. Dr. Kenneth B. Smith, Jr. was the guest for February's Assembly. Everyone was enthused to hear such a dynamic speaker as Dr. Smith. Both assemblies were tops.

HE WON'T FAIL YOU

On May 20, 1988, The Jones Metropolitan High School Gospel Choir presented a Musical entitled "He Won't Fail You." The Choir opened with a song entitled "Rejoice" led by Donna Wilburn and closed with the theme song "He Won't Fail You" led by Albert Brand. The guest soloist was Darius Brooks of the Thompson Community Singers who captivated the audience with a song entitled "Amazing Grace." The Gospel Choir would like to thank those students, parents, and faculty who attended this concert and made it what it was. Sponsor - Mr. Smith.

GOSPEL CONCERT

When we stand and see,
what lies ahead of you and me
We realize the possibility of it all;
That there are many things lying in wait
Trying to make us stumble and fall.
But we reach so high, as to touch the sky,
for we climb to rise,
and at the top we fly.
There is no height or problem too great for the graduating class of 1988.

DECISIONS
What do you want?
Where do you go?
At this point in life
You really don't know.
They say the time will come
When your fortune will be.
It's not so far away,
Just wait and see.
But do you have patience?
That is the question.
For fear and insecurity
Override this occasion.
Is this the beginning?
Or could it be the end?
That choice is up to you.
It's your decision, my friend.

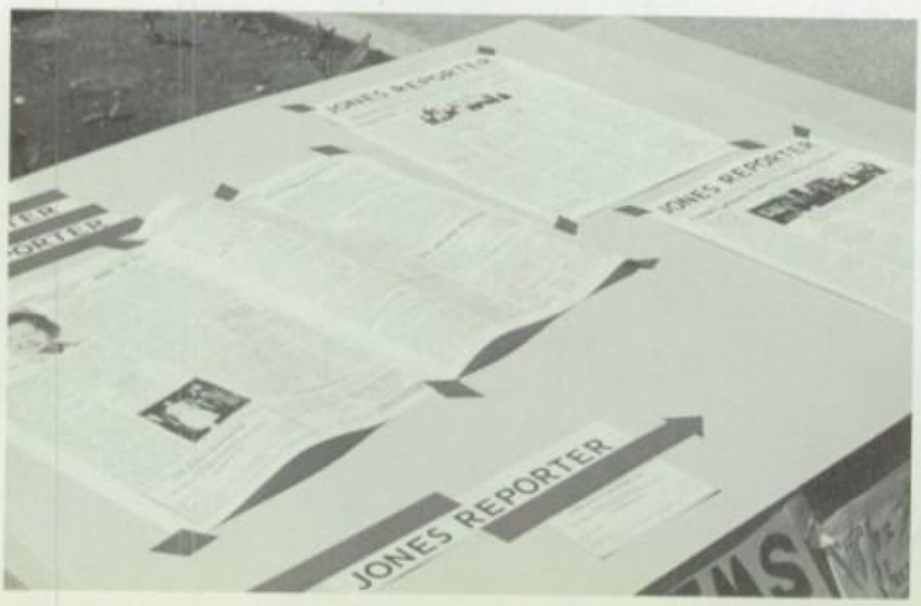
ENGLISH EXPO AT JONES

Jones participated in the central high school district English Expo. A mini English Expo was held at Jones on June 3, 1988. Mrs. McPherson was the sponsor of this grand event. There were displays from the Jones Reporter and Yearbook. The weird sisters from Macbeth had everyone laughing. There were scenes from Romeo and Juliet, singing of a Renaissance Ballad, "Raps," "Skits," and many other activities.



CITY - WIDE BUSINESS

Michele Johnson - Principals of Selling, Christopher Webb - Shorthand/Transcription, Johnni Mae Williams - Word Processing Concepts, Annette Chestnut - Accounting, Ornella Joyner - Typewriting, Jeanette Macklin - Sponsor, Timilyn Williams - Student Teacher and Assisting

A certificate of participation was awarded to each contestant in the various subject areas.

Michele Johnson won third place in Principles of Selling and received a Certificate of Merit.

ANNUAL VOTER - REGIS - TRATION

On January 15, 1988, Mrs. Mary L. Billingsley and Mrs. Sarah Valentine carried approximately thirty-five students to city hall to register to vote on Dr. Martin Luther King's Birthday.

Mrs. Billingsley, we thank you for your dedication and beautiful efforts. Without your supervision many students would not be registered.

The Jones Drama Club put on an excellent play called "Thanks Awfully!", starring Kevin Pettis as a woman hater, whose sister, Cynthia Smith, invites all of her friends over. He bets her that he can carry on a successful conversation with them on two words. All goes well until the girl he loves, Maja Kunzi, shows up at the party.

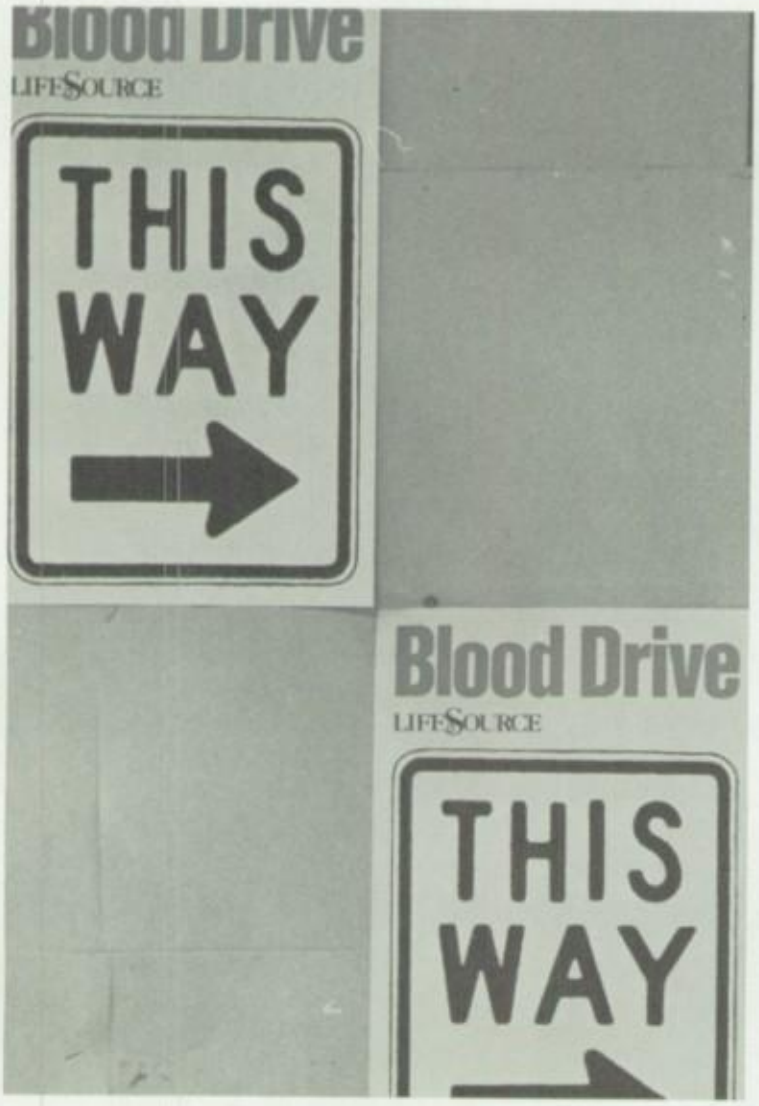
ANNUAL BLOOD DRIVE



Jones held its annual blood drive in the corrective exercise room. Many students were excited about giving because they knew they would be helping someone. A very special thanks to Ms. Opfer, the students and all who helped to help others.

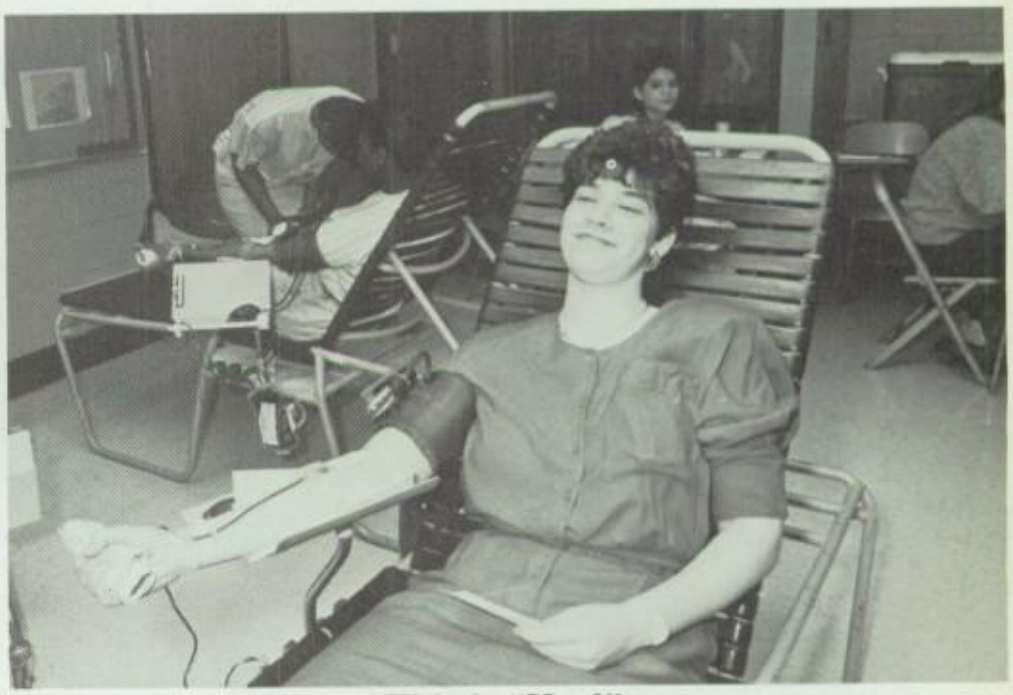
This is not as bad as I thought it was.

I think I am going to get scared.

I just can't look.

There's nothing to it.

Don't you hurt me!



This is "Kool".

How much longer?

Now we are rewarded.

DRAMATIZATIONS

Monica Villanueva and Gerardo Perez search behind the scenes of "Graffitti Art" and posed with a couple of art pieces done with an air brush. Miss Levy's English Class

Having a good time singing "Walk Like An Egyptian" were, (l to r) Theresa Reyes, Angela Lane and Toni Moncrief substituting for Rosario Ramirez and Monica Villanueva.

Claudette Harris, George Fischer, Kim Mitchell, Lashonda Milton, and Eduardio Diaz practice for their originality in writing scripts about the perils of prom performed in Ms. Levy's English class.

June 1, 1988 marked the annual voter registration walk for Jones students who would be 18 by November 8, 1988. Approximately 90 students registered to vote. Several others who missed this voter registration date went to other sites in the City and also City Hall and were registered. This group was greeted by Chairman James Nolan and other workers at the Board of Election Commissioners. Alderman Danny Davis of the 29th Ward gave a brief address to the students on how he prepared himself academically for his present office and positions.

MR. and MISS BUSINESS for 1987-'88

Every student looks forward to holding a very important position at sometime. The most important position one can hold at Jones is the position of Mr./Miss Business. It is like being King and Queen. Several students were nominated for the position. They were all so good that it was hard for the judges to make a decision. Finally, Jorge Lopez was chosen Mr. Business and Elizabeth Juarez - Miss Business.

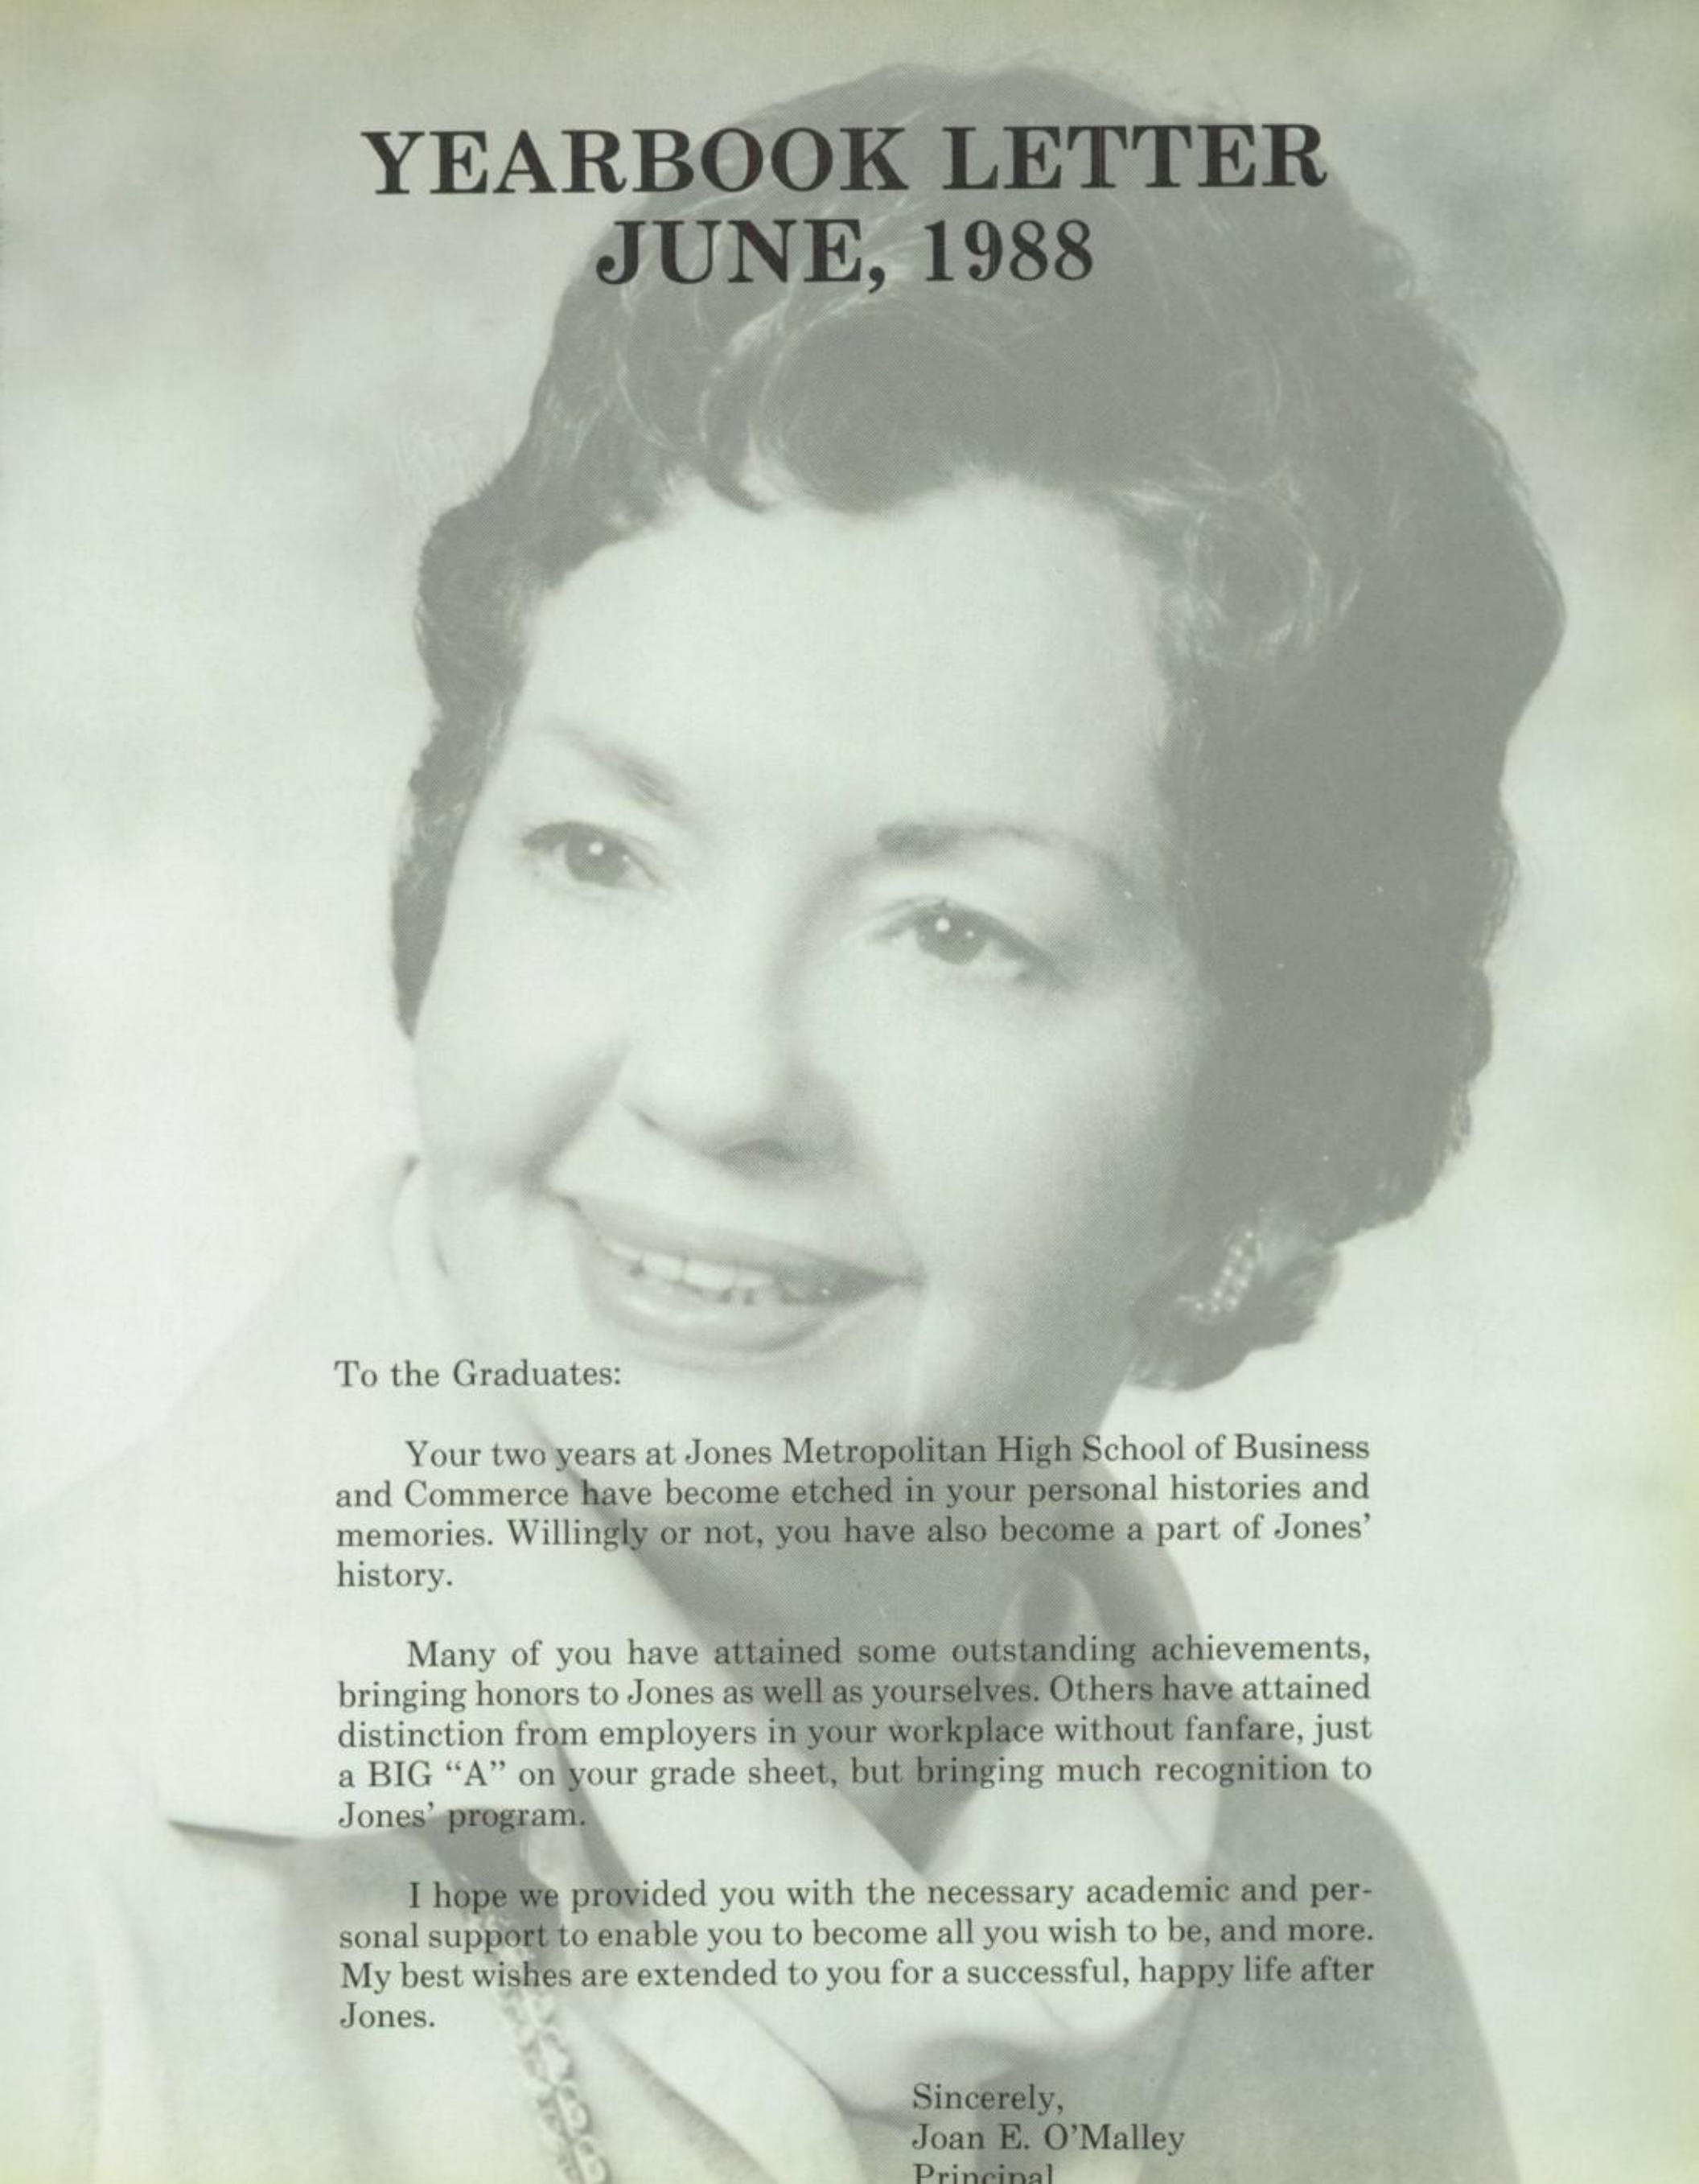
YEARBOOK LETTER
JUNE, 1988



To the Graduates:

Your two years at Jones Metropolitan High School of Business and Commerce have become etched in your personal histories and memories. Willingly or not, you have also become a part of Jones' history.

Many of you have attained some outstanding achievements, bringing honors to Jones as well as yourselves. Others have attained distinction from employers in your workplace without fanfare, just a BIG "A" on your grade sheet, but bringing much recognition to Jones' program.

I hope we provided you with the necessary academic and personal support to enable you to become all you wish to be, and more. My best wishes are extended to you for a successful, happy life after Jones.

Sincerely,
Joan E. O'Malley
Principal
